To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you in regard to the candidate, Alison Larkin, who is seeking future opportunities within your organization. I had the opportunity and pleasure of working for and with Alison at Pro-Motions, Inc. where she is currently employed. Through my experiences and observations, I can say, without reservation, that she would serve as an asset to your company if given the opportunity.

Upon joining the team at Pro-Motions, Alison served as my trainer and mentor, showing me the daily operations and what would be expected of me in my new position. She was patient, well spoken and very versed in explaining all aspects of the business. As a manager, especially throughout the learning process for me, she was always willing and able to take time out to answer questions or assist with trouble-shooting while still being able to multi-task and meet tight deadlines she faced in her own daily operations.

Alison was and continues to be extremely dedicated to doing the best job she can, for her internal co-workers as well as her external clients. In her past five years at Pro-Motions, she has played an integral role in the growth and success of the business. Alison is also committed to continually expanding her career skills, as, since I have known her, she has actively taken courses to build upon her professional growth.

I would highly recommend you consider Alison to be the newest addition to your team. If you have any specific questions or would like to discuss my recommendation further, please feel free to contact me at your convenience. I can be reached at work at 804.261.4377 or by cell phone at 804.868.8043.

Sincerely,

Stacey Coleman
